

WOVEN VS KNIT FABRIC

Multiple yarns comprise a woven fabric, crossing each other at right angles to form the grain.*

The basic difference between woven and knit fabrics is in the yarn or thread that composes them. A knit fabric is made up of a single yarn, looped continuously to produce a braided look.

